

Ideas and Resources for Parents

It is never too early to start talking with your son or daughter about college. Here are some ideas so you can share with your child your hopes and dreams for his or her education journey.

Quick & Easy College-Going Activities	More Complex College-Going Activities
Wear College t-shirts	Take your son or daughter on a field trip to one or more colleges that you attended or visit colleges in your community.
Have a conversation with your son or daughter about your own educational journey and their hopes and dreams of where they want to continue their education journey after high school. (See Take Home Activity to help guide this conversation.)	Attend College Day Parent Night at your child's school.
Create an Educational Journey Poster that you can share with your child. See the Ed Journey Poster Resource at www.collegeday.org

www.CollegeDay.org

© 2011 UC Berkeley, Center for Educational Partnerships.

These materials are derived from and used with permission of the Regents of the University of California on behalf of the Center for Educational Partnerships and its CollegeTools web site resources.